We are living through the most important, exciting and incredible time in human history. A revolutionary new phase in human evolution is unfolding right before our eyes awakening dormant codes in our human potential, and unleashing the very best and worst of times. Times of extremes as the rich get richer at the expense of the poor, our natural world is stressed to the max, and splendid opportunities accompany huge challenges. So how do we respond as individuals in these exciting stressful times? We evolve. We wake up and start doing things differently. The astrology of 2014 is simply loaded with the dynamics of planets all set to finally make this happen!

This will be a year of action and adventure when we must strike out into new territory and dare to go for it. The Year of the Earth Horse in Chinese Astrology is loaded with the fire to get things moving at a practical level, in contrast to the more introspective Water Snake of 2013, where we have been clearing up lots of old emotional junk, learning to trust our intuition and tuning in to new levels from higher guidance. Horses and heroes go together of course, thus the nobility and courage of the horse is our animal totem for the year ahead. The call to our individual heroic process began 2011 when Uranus entered Aries triggering the massive shifts and revolutions in our lives and world since. 2014 will be a fast paced year of extremes especially after July when Jupiter (whose animal is the horse) moves into dynamic Leo for the first time since 2002. We will experience breakdowns, breakups, breakthroughs and breath taking shifts that have been building during 2012/3.

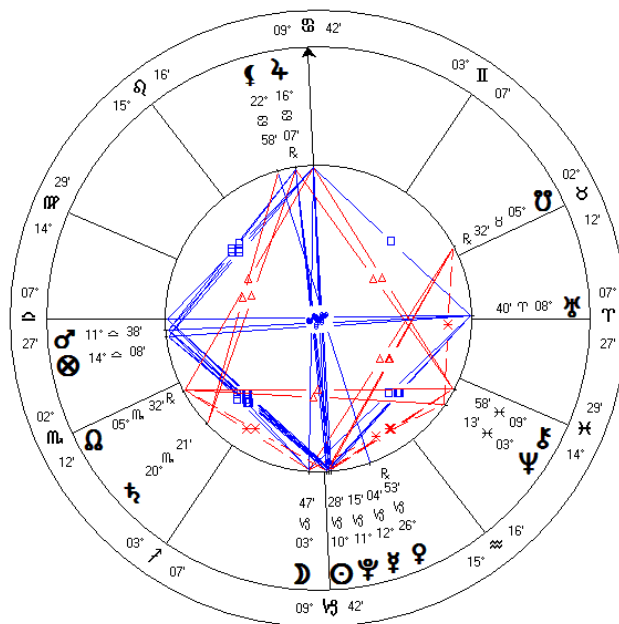

Remember 2012 - the year when the world was going to end and comets would zap us or some other wrath of god would come down upon our greedy heads? Well there's not many who can say they had a merry old time last year as indeed the world as we've known it did end, as our Sun aligned with the Galactic Centre coinciding with the end of the Mayan Cycle of 5,120 years, and an even greater cycle of 26,000 years. An evolution process has kicked in that assures us our consciousness must now be motivated by a new world view that supercedes the old gobble it and up make lots of money model. The altered magnetisms of our solar system have begun to 'shift' our reality as new dimensions of our potential are awakening and nothing will ever be the same again. Right now it's hard to imagine just how quickly the amazing new bio/technology advances will catapult us forward over the next few years. Now our job is to ensure our politicians and business leaders have our best interests at heart...not just theirs!

The 2014 Horoscope contains a dazzling line up of planets in a remarkable dynamic setup!

New Year's Day kicks off with a new moon in Capricorn with major challenging aspects from transformer Pluto, revolutionary Uranus, activator Mars and expansive Jupiter. So don't be surprised if 2014 opens with some fireworks in more ways than one with conflict and disruptive events a keynote theme. As the Jan 1st chart is a microcosm for the whole year this tension is a feature for the year ahead. Between Xmas and New Year the tension builds as Mars moves through the 'zap zone' of the world changing Uranus/Pluto connection... the underlying influence between 2011 and 2015. Mars in the equation challenges us to step into our power and free up old partnerships that limit us, walk new paths that offer the freedom to be who we really are, and ride the wave of change with courage and commitment to being the best that we can be! Make like a 'peaceful warrior' as you assert yourself toward your goals and say yes to change and innovation in your world. If you try to hang on to the past you will just create resistance and unnecessary pain and conflict! So let's have a look in more detail at what the 'boys upstairs' are up to over the year ahead.

Uranus God of Change & Revolution

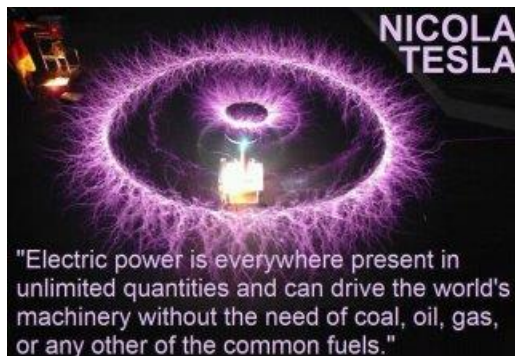

Pluto God of Death/Re-birth

The primary 'backdrop' for our planetary drama between 2011 and 2015 is provided by these guys forming a 90 degree challenging connection...now known as the 'zap zone'.

The 127 year Uranus/Pluto cycle is responsible for the progressive revolutionary forces unleashed when the seed of the new arises as a regenerative imperative. Unfortunately every culture contains the seeds of its own destruction. Progress (Uranus) and decay (Pluto) co-exist. History shows that all societies eventually develop the means of their own downfall. They always do it to themselves. It's a cyclical process. Progress, war, devastation then re-awakening.

This cycle ushered in the industrial revolution and has been advancing techno revolutions, and the power that arises from technology ever since they were 'discovered' (1782 & 1930 respectively). Edison, Bell and Tesla did their thing under this influence. So yep fabulous stuff on offer here and we will continue to see techno advances at an accelerated rate over the next 3 years. The other thing they are famous for is violent revolution if necessary to step beyond the old restrictive authoritarian forces that traditionally believe they have the right to run society...and all of us. Think French revolution, as this cycle also instinctively drives our evolution for human rights and the freedom of the individual. This is the key upgrade of the 'Unity Consciousness' of this current cycle.

Pluto's job is to break down and then transform the old order. As Pluto stepped into Capricorn in 2008 for the first time in 250 years the GFC meltdown began and the old Capricorn governance machine went into overdrive to prop up the failing banking system. They also began to ramp up their control mechanisms via 'police state' fascism and media propaganda to keep people believing they could still be trusted.

Uranus brings us freedom, innovation, liberation and change. As he entered Aries in 2011 for the first time in 84 years the Occupy Movement and the Arab Spring offered us the first glimpse of the revolutionary forces that would begin to transpire with Pluto's transforming process. The battle between the dark and light forces began in earnest. A new wave of inventions and technologies began the next great industrial revolution – the biomolecular revolution.

Uranus and Pluto began their new 127 year cycle in Virgo in the mid 1960's when the revolution into global consciousness began. Since then the 'old order' forces have done their best to keep us trapped in rigid fear/attack belief systems. This is the hallmark of the unconscious/control of resources paradigm. Since the '1980s courtesy of the 'globalization' agenda our world has become a corporate megalopolis where the boundaries between government services and the private sector have disappeared, and we are now run by massive conglomerates of complex interweaving 'sectors' with material consumption the matrix that overlays everything. Every aspect of our world is now 'owned' including our human genomes.

Here's what I said in last years' report; "This is the year when millions of us will finally wake up and say no. No to the hideous system the global elite have created to take away our unalienable right to freedom of thought and action. No, to the banksters who control the fraudulent financial system that gives to the rich and destroys everyone else. No, to the food production and 'big pharmas' that destroy the very nutrients that are meant to give us healthy bodies and minds. No, to the political system that empowers these perverse interests of money, greed and destruction of human rights. It's time to say no to the fascist monopoly that has been running our world!" Well the news is folks it has begun as we are now seeing the power of individual people to create consensus that rises above the political claptrap that they call global governance. And there's plenty more to come in April and December with one more pass in March/April 2015.

It is now up to us to create the interface between new corporate systems that put people and planet alongside profit. It is the power of united individuals who will turn the tide over these years as we can no longer wait for or trust our political leaders to do this! Richard Branson and his B-team are a great example of the new movement toward this goal – check out <http://bteam.org/about/vision> to get inspired!

Here are some cool examples of the remarkable new techno advances on offer in the past year that will now go mainstream in 2014 and completely revolutionize our lives.

1. Deta Elis Electromagnetic Bioresonance Therapy Devices will be sweeping the globe just like cell phones and computers. This ground breaking medical technology destroys the pharmaceutical paradigm and the doctors that practice it, using electromagnetic vibration to diagnose and cure without side effects yet with pinpoint precision. 2. Brazilian Firm Goes to Market with Free Energy Generator Capable of Powering Two Average-Size Houses. A fab part of the big push to get our free, safe, clean energies to the masses. Woo-hoo! The product looks legit. If this is for real, it will replace Dark Wallet as the second most important creation in the history of man, behind Bitcoin of course. The petro-dollar will surely topple in the face of this invention. <<< click here<<<
3. A GROUNDBREAKING new Irish technology which could be the greatest breakthrough in agriculture since the plough is set to change the face of modern farming forever. The technology - radio wave energised water - massively increases the output of vegetables and fruits by up to 30 per cent. Not only are the plants much bigger but they are largely disease-resistant, meaning huge savings in expensive fertilisers and harmful pesticides. The inexpensive water treatment technology is now being rolled out across the world. The technology makes GM obsolete and also addresses the whole global warming fear that there is too much carbon dioxide in the air, by simply converting excess CO2 into edible plant mass. Mars entered Libra in Dec 2013 and is a major player in the 2014 story as he retrogrades here so won't enter Scorpio until August 2014. The God of War will activate the simmering tension between the old order and the new earth consciousness both individually and collectively. The 'collective rage' that has been building in so many people over these past years is now reaching boiling point. The sad part is that most people don't even realise how angry they are at the lies and injustice of our ruling system. Our culture is now fuelled by aggression and violence...the polarity of love and co-operation, and this year the Jupiter factor in the mix will highlight these two extremes.

The irony of course is, as more people awaken to the global scam machine and begin to actively protest against the old unconscious 'order', both the violence and the 'peaceful resistance' will escalate. As civil unrest increases during the first half of 2014 all around the planet I look forward to further good news such as this great clip of Korean Police staging a 'sit in' rather than attack their fellow citizens. >>> click here<<< Things have reached a turning point and Mars is just the dude to make a stand against this global agenda!

Libra rules personal and business partnerships and as treaties and deals are struck during Libra time we will see further alliances for supposed 'free trade', a clever way of giving corporate systems ever greater power to control our freedom! On the up side a host of new clever innovative inventions and solutions to global issues will leap onto the scene, as conscious individuals become entrepreneurs and pioneer new businesses. So go for it people and avoid the global bank system for funds. Invest in yourself and seek like-minded people with funds to invest who also want to step out of the current stock market. Personally we can get on with PR and promoting our projects and setting up excellent new alliances. Avoid conflict as you assert yourself from situations and people who seek to influence or control you.

'From conflict to co-operation' is the imperative shift that our new cycle of 'unity consciousness' demands...from us all. Personally the message is stay loose folks and don't try to force your will on others as you venture into new partnerships or let go of any that are blocking your individual expression. Find the balance between and avoid extreme positions and judging others, and pleeeeee avoid knee jerk reactions and the urge to send bits of anxiety and frustration at anyone! Notice when and at whom you become impatient so you can 'dismantle' your old defence mechanisms and become "safe to be an individual and step forward in my life". Mars in Libra can use the urge to 'fight' to stand up for social justice and people who do not have a voice.

Mars activates the 'zap zone' on Jan 1st – late April – from mid to late June.

Jupiter has been in Cancer since July 2013 and enters Leo on July 16th 2014

Jupiter's magnetism expands whichever zodiac field he enters. Cancer is the key sign at the bottom of the Cardinal Axis...the 4 signs that comprise our primary activity in the world (Aries), family security (Cancer), relationships - personal and business (Libra), and our worldly outcomes (Capricorn). As we have seen there are heaps of planets in these signs during 2014. This is the 'me and the personal and global governance systems within which I participate' axis. So Jupiter is really expanding the current highly unsafe corporate/economic world story and bringing it to a head.

As Cancer rules 'mass consciousness' by embodying the primitive instinctual need for security and survival (lower astral body), fear of loss and lack reign supreme here. Until one steps up to the higher level of what Cancer has to offer at the evolved Soul level ruled by Neptune (Buddhic plane), where we may access the 'form building' ability of Cancer from a place of emotional safety...without the fear. So great things can be birthed and built as Jupiter triggers this process. Conversely much can be lost if we are buying into the collective fear that our current system is laying on in bucket loads.

Personally we must all take care of any unsafe core beliefs we carry in our DNA and re-program or upgrade our operating system to become "safe and in my flow" and "supported in all my creative endeavours".

Jupiter in Cancer also hits off the 'zap zone' of the revolutionary Uranus/Pluto square in late January and a big date to watch is April 23rd when Mars joins Jupiter and Pluto in a hard aspect right on the Sun of the USA horoscope. Get set for major developments on the global financial/economic scene courtesy of the Federal Reserve, United Nations, UK, Australia, USSR and a host of other national horoscopes being triggered big time.

The last time he was in Cancer in 2001/2 the world was changed forever via the 9/11 conspiracy. As a result the War in Iraq began on March 19 2003 and we have been living with the fear based consequences ever since. The 'homeland' was first invented (a smooth adaptation of Hitler's 'fatherland') and TSA agents began frisking grandmothers — the whole thing seemed like a joke. It looked as though America's leaders had gotten themselves into a hysterical panic. They thought there were terrorist sleeper cells in every hamlet and burg...and that these infiltrators were about to wreak havoc on the nation. It was a preposterous lie, but we figured they'd come to their senses soon. Instead of coming to their senses, America's leaders — Republican and Democrat — began to see the advantage of a war that could neither be won nor lost. As long as the country was 'at war', the money flowed freely to zombie 'defence' industries and the good citizens submitted to indignities that would be intolerable in a more civilised nation." Bill Bonner. The Daily Reckoning Australia June 21 2013

Over the past 12 years 'Homeland Security' has involved the passing of legislation that allows anyone to be arrested without charge or trial if suspected of being a terrorist...including individuals protesting the loss of civil rights or attempting to expose the secret agendas of governments. Sounds familiar...think 1930s Germany if you were Jewish, Gay, Gypsy or generally not part of their Aryan system.

12 years earlier he was front and centre in Cancer on 9th Nov 1989, opposite Neptune and Saturn in Capricorn, with Mars and Pluto in Scorpio and the physical and symbolic Berlin Wall was shattered. The people rejoiced at their freedom as the global political/ financial boys rubbed their hands together with glee at all the new credit markets they could exploit!

On July 16th Jupiter enters Leo until mid-2015...hoorah! As his job is to open new territory and the sign is Leo then we can all get on with fab new creative options with a fresh sense of excitement and purpose and a whole lot more fun! He makes a great connection with change agent Uranus in late September and again March and June 2015. Hopefully some inspirational new leaders will make their appearance during this cycle as God knows we sure need some!

Saturn has been in Scorpio since October '12 and enters Sagittarius in Jan '15

Next cab off the rank is Saturn in Scorpio, where he is hanging out until the end of 2014 when he stomps into Sagittarius. Good old task master/teacher Chronos is advancing our evolution by taking us much deeper into ourselves than ever before.

Scorpio is the realm of death/rebirth and plunges us down into our deepest neuroses and insecurities. So the question becomes do you let go and stop controlling everything/one so you can allow your rebirth OR do you hang onto all that old emotional junk that has been cluttering up your unconscious and blocking your power? That's a no brainer as they say!

So let go of all those old dark feelings... despair/rage/helplessness/guilt and shame! It is also essential that we release our "attachment" to things and people as this is the most powerful of the old limiting beliefs...that somehow owning things/people is the key to happiness, security and inner peace. So not the case!! Then we can begin to feel all the excitement and joy that is our natural condition, and enable our capacity for intimacy and closeness as we are free to share ourselves with others without attachment, and without fear of betrayal and loss. Bring it on! On the upside Scorpio is about the sharing of resources and new ways to recycle and use precious commodities in fab clever new ways. This will also create lots of employment through new industrial systems.

Here's what I had to say about Saturn in Scorpio in last year's report; "Collectively we may see some pretty dark and secretive agendas/systems exposed as the political/financial system continues to further implode on itself. This could potentially also be a deepening of the surveillance control systems that now have achieved enormous power in terms of governments/banks/security apparatus that runs our world. I'm going for the 'expect a miracle' approach as it would bring a smile to my face to finally see some of these business/political folks get their day in court as the crooks that they really are."

Since then a number of notable 'whistle blowers' have begun to expose the completely corrupt interlocking government/ banking system, even as it has been continuing to grow and flourish! We can expect this to become an avalanche of such proportions over the next year that it will be impossible for the banksters owned media to be able to keep the lid on the pot! Big news also that 'Tech Giants Have Called on the US to Reform Surveillance Laws in wake of Edward Snowden NSA Leaks'. Eight leading US-based technology companies have called on the US government to overhaul surveillance laws following the revelations of online eavesdropping from fugitive US intelligence leaker Edward Snowden. Apple, Facebook, Google, Microsoft, Twitter, Yahoo, AOL and LinkedIn wrote an open letter to President Barack Obama and the US Congress calling on the US to lead the way in a worldwide reform of state-sponsored spying. "The balance in many countries has tipped too far in favour of the state and away from the rights of the individual - rights that are enshrined in our Constitution. This undermines the freedoms we all cherish. It's time for a change." Since June, newspapers across the world have revealed the wide scope of government spying by publishing classified documents leaked by Edward Snowden, a former US National Security Agency (NSA) contract analyst now on the run in Russia. Governments have 'put trust at risk'. The tech companies may also fear that increased security concerns will hurt their own ability to track customers for marketing purposes. "People won't use technology they don't trust, Governments have put this trust at risk, and governments need to help restore it" said Microsoft's Brad Smith. Snowden feels vindicated as world debates spying US secretary of state John Kerry admits spying has gone 'too far'. Here is Ed Snowden's Christmas Message >>>click here<<<

We hang petty thieves and appoint the great ones to public office. ~Aesop, Greek slave & fable author

The problem we are faced with today is that our political and (frequently) business leaders are not being held responsible for their actions. Thomas Sowell sums it up well: "In other words, probably for the first time in history, we have today a system where leaders are not only not punished for their failures, but are actually rewarded..."

Here's an excerpt from my book 'the 12 System' regarding money and power, another big theme of Saturn in Scorpio. "It was during the 1980's (the previous Saturn in Scorpio cycle) that the global system embraced the principle and implementation of 'Globalization' and the widespread use of credit led to the massive expansion and power of multinational corporations and banks, whose agendas are driven by short term profit over long term sustainable outcomes.

In recent decades it seems we have begun to allow the lunatics to run the asylum, as both political and financial leaders seem intent on destroying true wealth creation. Wealth is now generated in thin air and along fiber optic cables in massive transactions traded between all the nations on earth regardless of their political persuasion. During the 1990's the new economic product known as 'derivative' entered the money making system.

"A derivative is a legal bet (contract) that derives its value from another asset, such as the future or current value of oil, government bonds or anything else. A derivative buys you the option (but not obligation) to buy oil in 6 months for today's price/any agreed price, hoping that oil will cost more in future. (I'll bet you it'll cost more in 6 months). Derivative can also be used as insurance, betting that a loan will or won't default before a given date. So it's a big betting system, like a Casino, but instead of betting on cards and roulette, you bet on future values and performance of practically anything that holds value. The system is not regulated what-so-ever, and you can buy a derivative on an existing derivative.

Most large banks try to prevent smaller investors from gaining access to the derivative market on the basis of there being too much risk. The Derivative market has blown a galactic bubble, just like the real estate bubble or stock market bubble (that's going on right now). Since there is literally no economist in the world that knows exactly how the derivative money flows or how the system works, while derivatives are traded in microseconds by computers, we really don't know what will trigger the crash, or when it will happen, but considering the global financial crisis this system is in for tough times that will be catastrophic for the world financial system, since the 9 largest banks hold a total of $228.72 trillion in Derivatives - Approximately 3 times the entire world economy. No government in the world has money for this bailout.” http://demonocracy.info/infographics/usa/derivatives/bank_exposure.html

Truly bizarre stuff. We can make money out of ‘nothing’ simply by buying and selling commodities and services we never see or understand. But who cares about the ethics or morality of a bank or company if you’re making money in your daily trading or longer term investment portfolio right? Good question and it is up to each of us to answer it and decide if it matters!”

14 years ago in 1999 we were at the top of the dot.com bubble as Saturn in his 28/9 year cycle entered Taurus, setting the stage for the beginning of his new 20 year cycle with Jupiter in 2000. In April 2000 the biggest one day drop in global share markets in history burst the dot.com bubble. Half a Saturn cycle later, we now have Saturn in Scorpio...the opposite sign to Taurus. Since early 2013 we have experienced a massive bull run in global share markets, as the Federal Reserve QE money printing has created a new bubble - the ‘Global Banking Bubble’, as the bailouts are for Wall Street and the Banksters not for Main Street. The writing is on the wall for another major bubble burst that could be the biggest ever. They seem to think that they can create a perpetual credit bubble and that as long as the Fed keeps printing the cash there is no tomorrow.

Well cycles show us that all things have an accounting...excuse the pun. My intention here is not to alarm you but rather to simply state the facts that cycles reveal to us. The last time Uranus squared Pluto was during the Great Depression. So do not be tempted to join the sheep flocking into the stock market right now, as this is a sure sign the writing is on the wall and the guys that manipulate the system are suckering all the everyday folks into the scam so they can pull the plug and make their money on their short positions! Yet again.

Be a ‘contrarian’ and do the exact opposite to what everyone else is doing. I have been watching global systems cycles and markets for over 30 years and all the signals from the past are currently in place. As we have seen with both Mars and Jupiter triggering the Uranus Pluto ‘zap zone’ during the first half of 2014 the whole bubble may reach a point where ‘something’s gotta give’. There is now increasing pressure building to re-instate some kind of separation between private and investment banking sectors. It will be fascinating to see if this actually comes to pass during 2014.

A number of ‘cryptocurrencies’ or digital currency have hit the scene over the past few years the most notable being ‘Bitcoin’, as a response to people’s disenchantment with banking and the devaluation of fiat money.

“Publicly, the feds are playing it cool towards Bitcoin. Privately, they must be sweating as the new virtual money has the potential to destroy the dollar...the Fed...the banks...and the whole world's monetary system. It could also make gold obsolete. This new money is easier to use and costs nothing to store. Regulate it? That may not be possible. Bitcoin is the most disruptive technology yet invented. It could be the biggest financial story since gold. Nothing like it has happened in 6,000 years - an entirely new kind of money...and better! In fact, it could help bring in a whole new phase of economic development..." The Daily Reckoning. The only problem right now is that Bitcoin has begun its own speculation bubble as people are seeking investment return, which defeats the whole purpose. The other problem with these digital currencies is their reliance on IT access, which makes them vulnerable to hacking etc. So stay tuned for other options to emerge in due course that may indeed offer a viable alternative money system.

Here's a great story that main stream media have neglected to share with us that offers a real and viable alternative for citizens to take back their power in every country.

The Icelandic people have shown that there is a way to beat the system and has given a democracy lesson to the world. The people have made the government resign, the primary banks have been nationalized, it was decided to not pay the debt that these created with Great Britain and Holland due to their bad financial politics, and a public assembly has been created to rewrite the constitution. And all of this in a peaceful way. A whole revolution against the powers that have created the current global crisis. This is why there hasn't been any publicity during the last two years: What would happen if the rest of the EU citizens and US citizens took this as an example? In this crisis an assembly is elected to rewrite a new Constitution which can include the lessons learned from this, and which will substitute the current one (a copy of the Danish Constitution).

Neptune has been in Pisces since 2012 for the first time in 164 years!

Neptune in Pisces is deepening the psycho/spiritual growth that offers the beautiful counterpoint to all the Uranus/Pluto mayhem of these times. His influence is deep and pervasive...way above the threshold of daily consciousness. So be grateful that our evolutionary planetary forces have everything covered despite outward appearances. Our spiritual evolution will occur in leaps and bounds over the 14 years he is in Pisces. For an in-depth look at Neptune in Pisces go to www.universalastrology.com.au and click on articles.

Neptune's part in our current global story involves the spread of a new wave of spiritual awareness and inspiration through the collective emotional field as he infuses us with the new imprint or DNA program. Neptune's entry into Pisces in 2012 coincided with the Mayan Calendar cycle shift. He is a huge ingredient in these times opening a new phase in our spiritual evolution as he also brings us the 'spiritual crisis' of these times where material values appear to have replaced loving compassion, tolerance and faith in our higher nature and purpose.

Historically Neptune's 14 year passage through a sign influences the fashion/style/image of the time...the Zeitgeist. I have already witnessed the increasing spiritual glamour of late as it is now quite fashionable to have a guru or yoga group or whatever. Jupiter in Sanskrit means 'guru' so get set for a whole new bunch of them to hit the scene, and as usual there are many traps for young players here if one chooses to give ones' power to the 'guru' rather than allow the 'guru' to reflect ones' process to oneself! Yes I was also around in the 1960/70s 'guru' phase when Neptune was in Scorpio.

The general message here is it is time to get past your own ego needs and see what you can do for others. The many global religions are all underpinned with core spiritual values and truths. It is only when they become dogmatic about their version of God that they can be used as political tools to control and limit people and create 'separation' rather than inclusiveness.

The USA Chart has been under many challenging transits for the past few years and so far their political/economic system is continuing to limp along with massive bailouts and money printing staving off a big final crunch...which will actually arrive as Pluto opposes the USA Sun from March 2014 through 2016. When Pluto joined the USA Sun between late 1924 and 1927 the USA began its rise to prominence in the commercial industrial complex. Let's hope the opposition finally offers the regenerative force so needed so they may re-invent themselves and re-claim the moral integrity that forged the nation in the first place.

April 22nd 2014 is a date to watch.

Uranus, Pluto, Mars and Jupiter are all at 13 degrees of their signs so all in aspect to the USA Sun at 13 degrees Cancer. Bells and whistles! The Sun is the 'identity' of the USA, which will now begin go through a massive death/rebirth process for a couple of years. Think Occupy America. As the US$ underpins the global economy the $ may be challenged as the reserve currency. The USA was founded with Pluto Sun Jupiter and Mercury in Cancer. As the US begins to head toward their Pluto return (250 year cycle) from 2020 the very nature of the original Declaration of Rights that underpinned their constitution is now up for grabs.

Ah such an interesting time to be alive. Due to the 'Chaos factor' of our times it is impossible to know what will transpire, which is what makes it so interesting. What I do know is that enough of us unite our hearts and minds to create the new consciousness to permeate the collective emotional field with 'Unity Consciousness' then the old powers that be haven't got a chance. Hoorah!

Be aware that a likely scenario here involves the uniting of the secret power cabals into an even greater control system. The Bilderberg Group was founded in 1953 when Saturn was in Scorpio. (May 29 1954 10.00am Amhem Netherlands). The charts of all the major world powers all have strong connections to this chart! www.wikipedia.org/wiki/Bilderberg_Group

This annual meeting of political and economic representatives from 18 nations meets behind closed doors to run the global show. They do not release reports and minutes are not available to the public. Attendees include heads of the World Bank, Federal Reserve and major banking cartels. So how about Occupy Bilderberg!! Isn't it time the lid was blown on the truth about how they really run this planet? Is this what we can hope for from Uranus and Pluto unlocking the gates to the castle?

2014 Eclipses

Eclipses are an incredibly important feature of any solar year as these alignments between moon/sun/earth, activate links between soul/creative ego/worldly expression...in 19 year groups. So every solar or lunar eclipse is actually part of a 'family' that only repeats every 19 years. Destiny calls on these cycles as we release the past and welcome the new. Check your chart and see if you have planets close to these degrees. If so then these parts of your life will experience the beginning of a new 19 year cycle. Check back to what happened last time for clues and themes for this one.

15th April Total Lunar (Sun opposite Moon) 25 Aries/Libra This one is all about self and others and finding the balance and peace whilst not compromising yourself. Also can contain the need to assert into a new situation and partner up with others to get where you need to go.

29th April Solar (Sun conjunct Moon) 8 Taurus Sun and Moon are in positive aspect to Pluto in Capricorn. This feels like a major new opening in personal and global financial areas, for better or worse depending on your beliefs about whether you deserve prosperity and security in the material world. Keep building practical components in new projects.

This first pair is part of Saros Cycle 16 South. The caution here is to not waste energy or misdirected motivation. Eclipses are affective for 6 months after their date, until the second set from Oct 2014.

8th Oct Total Lunar (Sun opposite Moon) 15 Libra/Aries Sun with Venus opposite Moon with Uranus reeks of sudden shifts in partnerships with fresh exciting new opportunities. The eclipse also hits Pluto offering a challenge to integrate new partnership alliances into your goals.

24th October Solar partial (Sun conjunct Moon) 0 Scorpio This is the final in the Scorpio eclipses of the past 18 months. Venus joins Sun & Moon with a nice easy trine to Neptune in Pisces. This offers us deep internal cohesion as our spiritual and emotional power becomes an ever greater source of strength.

This second set of eclipses is part of Saros Cycle 17 New North. Strong motivation for financial projects and relationship growth. Impulsive, passionate and exciting. (Bernadette Brady 'The Eagle & the Lark')

Mercury Retrograde Periods

Mercury retrogrades (apparently goes backward) three times each year. As this is the planet whose magnetisms affect all forms of communication, then these are the times when IT and gizmos don't work properly and messages/mail gets lost...you get the idea. So don't buy new appliances, be aware that travel plans may change, avoid signing contracts etc. as details are often incorrect. Mind you some folks don't experience these problems because of their horoscope makeup, so check your chart with a good Astrologer to work with planning your year on all levels...saves so much time and mess! Ah yes I am available for chart sessions! So drop an email or ring to make a date.

Aries

In case you have been on another planet a quick reminder that your life has been in a major renovation phase since 2011 so you'll be pleased to hear that 2014 fires you up into brand new territory...at last! Until July your focus and growth involves home, biz and personal partnerships and career. The common theme requires seeking co-operative solutions that allow everyone to get their needs met. If you do the 'my way or the highway' approach you may lose valuable support, so remember to assert for your individual needs rather than attack others because you're in defensive mode. Allow folks to move on or out of your world if necessary and bless and thank them for their contribution to your life. If you haven't already moved house then late April may trigger an upgrade or renovation to enhance home base comfort and room for an expanding family...ah yes marriages, homecomings and births may feature here. From Jan to mid-year you're in excellent promotion mode with April 23/24 the time to launch a PR drive to sell an existing business or make a change in your career department. By late May you may be signing contracts in your favour and then by July you step forward into an innovative creative genius phase till mid-2014. You are the pioneering entrepreneurs who are meant to open new paths in our changing world so it's time to use your brave energy to do exactly this!

Taurus In these times of evolutionary upgrade it is so important who we choose to hang out with...both personally and professionally. So if you're wondering why you've been culling some mates and bizz connections lately it's simply that they don't match your new enhanced value systems! This also creates space to invite fresh conscious folks to help you grow and prosper and by May your timings are fab for new deals and partnerships. Expansionary Jupiter has been in your communications sector since last July, growing your knowledge base, increasing networks and teaching you how to use the power of your mind to open fresh horizons. So you have until July to write that best seller and head off o/s for life changing journeys. Mars spends the first half of the year activating your daily work/health zone. He's the dude who requires we open new territory or pioneer something and with PR and promotions a theme make the best of this unusually long period of activity. The tricky bit may be your urge to do things your way versus the need for other people's input so curb impatience, take a breath and make like a peaceful warrior. From July Jupiter heads into your home/family area till mid-2015, always an excellent period to make the best of your lovin herd! Houses are sold or renovated, babies arrive, and new levels of emotional safety are the gift of this time.

Gemini Since mid-2013 you've been in one of the best business cycles you've known in ages, and yes I hear you say "I've also been working harder than in ages"! The result by June will be totally worth your while. Jupiter's once in 12 year foray through your values sector is increasing your earning power, but initially there may be more $ going out to invest in your future than coming in right now, so fret not and trust your creative instincts. Another feature here is 'sharing resources' both financial and intellectual, so best time to seek a loan is late April and ideally avoid traditional banks. In the new bizz model we need to source 'conscious venture capital' i.e. individuals who are seeking smart innovative new bizz to invest in. Activator Mars spend Jan through June in your 'creativity zone' to get your mojo cooking up fun interesting new developments, which coincides nicely with other features mentioned. This is a fun placement, highly sociable, brings out the kid in you, and make the most of creative time with your own kids. From July till June 2015 Jupiter enhances your favourite activity... learning and communication. Time to up-skill, or teach your own material, or head off for big plane rides. As the 'mind and mouth' people of the Zodiac it's your job to model and teach the world the correct use of 'Unity Consciousness'...synchronizing our logical right brain with our intuitive right brain. So go for it people.

Cancer Congratulations to all you crab people who have been making the most of fabulous Jupiter in your sign since mid-2013...full on isn't it? All systems go means you're probably a bit pooped as 2014 dawns so take a big breath and go for it till mid-2014 while this once in 12 year cycle is growing your life. The purpose is to enjoy strengthening the security for your beloved home and family so great times for changing properties or renovations, and be happy about duties and responsibility for your kids as this is the best investment you can ever make. Just beware taking on too much or over extending yourself physically and financially as Jupiter doesn't know when to say no, so don't promise more than you can deliver. Career areas are also in fine form if you're making sure that innovation is your new favourite word, and be aware there's a big move on 23/24 April containing challenge, action, opportunity and change. Wish I was psychic so I could tell you what exactly but life is meant to be a surprise. The power is in knowing your cycle timings so you can take advantage. Ah must mention as you're a feelin kind of person, your other huge evolution this year is a big upshift in your intuition so trust this from now on! From mid-year expansive Jupiter enters your financial zone so it will be reaping time from current hard work. Late Sept is bravo for a big new career move that takes you to a whole new level.

Leo If you've been feeling a bit off the boil take heart as life is all about cycles and you're in an ebb tide working out some growth behind the scenes since mid-2013 until mid-2014. It's called getting happy with yourself, finding inner peace and balance and enjoying personal time and space. It's also called cooking up your future, preparing the soil for a splendid new tree and all sorts of metaphors along those lines! Just don't buy into fears that you'll never be exciting again 'cause you will. The lion is just resting in the shade before the next hunting expedition. You're also in a responsible phase re the mob at home so undertake to be there for family and friends in an attitude of love as you also reap the benefits of other people sometimes being more important than wonderful you. Until mid-year Mars in your communication zone requires your courage to network, write and teach by adding a fresh ingredient to your repertoire...probably a techno IT kind of thing. This is also great timing to set up travels and adventures for second half 2014, when Jupiter enters your sign for the first time in 12 years and you're ready to rock and roll. The lion will roar once more! Our world is in a revolutionary phase that requires conscious leaders to do their thing and inspire folks to believe they can grow and thrive in a new era, if willing to let go of old style 'programming' that limits and controls us. And you're just the kid to do it!

Virgo Ah we love you sensible people. When the world gets nuts you just keep on keepin on showing us all that new lives unfold with simple practical organization. Jupiter in your society sector since mid-2013 has been growing your relationship to your community, your sense of belonging, and humanitarian values. This is also the cycle in your evolution that opens your mind to the new ideas and options required to prepare the ground for late-2015, when you begin a new 12 year cycle. So accept invitations, hang out with cool interesting people who may network you and dare to dream way beyond your current world view. Regardless of your more conventional appeal of a stable life it's essential to realize our unfolding new world means we have to think and be different, so here's where your challenge lies in 2014. This can be a great time to study or develop new professional goals. Money areas are highly active until mid-year so get your buns in gear kids and get mobilized to make hay while the sun shines. Mind you be a tad cautious re current or planned investments especially around April 23/24. If something is too good to be true then it is, but if you run your ever practical eyes over an offer that is both innovative and feels good then this can be a windfall moment. From mid-year you move into a quieter phase as you head into a psycho/spiritual growth cycle to get in touch with your inner guru and intuitive development.

Libra 2014 opens with Mars in your sign until July setting the stage for high octane exposure of your wondrous talents and skills. Yes I'm talking you up for good reason as this is your chance to put your message out there through a fab PR marketing process. Just be aware that you'll be kinda fiery as you do this, which just could attract a little reaction from peeps who either resent your open display of courage, or use the mirror you hold up for them to highlight their own fear of flying. Needless to say do not react! Just keep being your gracious elegant self and do it anyway. Jupiter, the planet of opportunity and luck, has brought a major growth spurt to your career area since mid-2013 so you have till mid-year to continue this advancement phase. Yes the balancing act between your career goals and meeting family's needs is keeping you on your toes so keep on dancing and remember to give yourself a pat on the back for juggling so many balls so well. You've been juggling the financial balls for the past year also as you tidy up debt and get organised, so good news here by late May when planets align to send $ rewards and/or set up a career coup to build on previous efforts. From July you head into a splendid 12 months getting out in the world to expand your group/team networks. Fortunate Jupiter in your 'house of hopes and wishes fulfilled' is simply great. This is also when we must tap into the 'realm of idea' to channel in fresh inspiration for future goals, and commit to our highest outcomes arising when we serve our global community.

Scorpio Once every 28 years we all get our turn to grow up and find what we're made of as Saturn comes calling to our sign. Since late 2011 it's been your turn...lucky you...ha...as he's been testing you big time, straightening out any kinks in your ability to apply yourself with focus and dedication to your personal growth and evolution. Saturn on your Sun says 'Am I in full self-responsibility – what is my true identity – do I really believe in myself – if not what am I afraid of about becoming who I really am?' You have all of 2014 to sort this out and restructure whatever you need to make your life more conscious and streamlined. 'It's safe for me to make it' is your mantra. Aply assisting this growth process is wonderful Jupiter in your 'house of higher learning' since mid-2013 urging your exploration of new information to empower your life. If you don't know yet how to use your own mind and consciousness to become a true creator of your life Jan to June is your grand opportunity dear eagle people. Also a great travel cycle with excellent outcomes for publishing or getting your message out there. From July it's all about stepping your career up another notch via a once in 12 year advancement phase...ab fab. This can bring authority type promotions and/or a leadership role. Remember you are the 'transformers' of the Zodiac in a box seat position to be lead us from the old world view to the new paradigm in these revolutionary times.

Sagittarius You've been in inner world spaces rather than outer world action since mid-2013 plunging deeply into territory you tend to resist dear Archers...your feelings! The thing is when we step up or re-boot our conscious 'program' we must learn to use the power of our feelings in a whole new way, so you've been doing the big deep dive into old stored emotional crap so you can let it go and move on...eh viola. Until we let go of old toxic emotions like guilt and rage and fear we can't access the 'positive feelings' like joy and passion and love. The result by mid-year is a whole new level of emotional safety so you can step into your power after July. This psycho-spiritual growth phase also offers correct use of your intuition and a deeper relationship with incoming inspiration i.e. your soul...for a major new life phase in 2015. Meanwhile Jan to June is not all quiet reflection with a touch of loneliness at times! Dynamic Mars in Libra throws up some major social exposure and opens global networks and group connections. This is much more to your liking and will keep you pretty busy so it's a big yes from you when invitations hit the in-box as you're wide open to setting up situations for sharing your knowledge and skills. This can have 'political' implications in the sense that 2014 will be an era of social activism, and as Archers see the big picture need for major global reform it may be time to walk your talk! From July your ruler Jupiter heads into your travel zone so maybe those invitations require a plane ticket!

Capricorn Whoosh guys your new year begins with quite a blast as the new moon in your sign launches you forward into the most dynamic year of your life...ever! From Jan to June action planet Mars sets up career moves to offer you either a bold new direction that contains your true vocation rather than old "I should do xxxxx versus I really want to do what I'm passionate about". The other scenario on offer releases an old business situation that is well past its use by date, so remember not to sell yourself short when it comes to reaping hard earned rewards. Since mid-2013 until July partnerships are in focus and for some a new supportive situation is on offer, while for others the opportunity is a surprise exit of someone who no longer resonates with the new improved you. Generally make sure to enjoy the social scene and happy times with interesting people and events. On April 23/24 three planets conspire to bring dynamic shifts to home, partner and career areas so jot this in your diary and see what's forming up into April. You goats are the dudes who must take responsibility for building new corporate systems to replace the old broken ones, so it's time to step into your power and get on with it! The world will change hugely this year and is ripe for clever ambitious people like you to do your thing. From mid-year you head into quieter waters as planets come off centre stage. It's time to build your emotional closeness with others and there may be a settlement or inheritance on the way. Have a great year.

Aquarius You've been hammering away like a Trojan building your career and public profile since late 2011, and yes you're pretty over it but no you can't stop just yet. Why waste such a fabulous cycle as it only happens every 28 years. The thing is you really need to deal with any old resistance buried deep in your DNA that keeps holding you back from your real potential. It's really challenging being a 'seed planter', seeing the big picture, the need for change, daring to be different even when feelings of rejection make it seem it's not worth your efforts. You guys are the social revolutionaries who carry the torch for a better humanity where we live in a safe and equitable world. As 2014 is the year when the old order will crumble then your time has come dear water carriers. Time to pour down the 'waters of knowledge', bring in your daring new ideas and inventions, speak up and out without fear of reprisal. Miraculous things will unfold this year in the form of peaceful resistance forcing the old order to change their tune, and amazing techno solutions to global problems. It's all very exciting! Keep 23/24 April in your sights for a launch date for projects or activating a possible international connection to advance your goals. More exciting news as good fortune comes calling into your relationship sector from July till mid-2014. You can enjoy fresh progressive incoming partners... personal and business, as well as a fab PR and marketing phase. So hang in there kids and keep working hard to establish your reputation as the dude who has always been ahead of your time because the world is finally catching up!
